Rambo the Rhombus is enjoying his visit to Egypt when all of the sudden he hears a cry for help! It must be General Width back at it again!	"YOU'LL NEVER CATCH ME! MS. DECAGON IS MINE RAMBO!" and with that General Width snatches Ms. Decagon and vanishes in the distance. But Rambo The Rhombus, being the hero he is, translates after them.	Rambo The Rhombus then reflected over the towering sand dunes in the blazing sun, determined to save Ms. Decagon.

Rambo The Rhombus then rotated 90 degrees CCW and ran into a group of General Width's minions. THE CACTI! With Rambo's super strength he fought the Cacti off.	Rambo began down the road towards General Width's lair. BUT, there was a camel blocking the road and it wouldn't move!	So Rambo rotated around the camel 90 degrees right into General Width's lair!
$(6, -13) \rightarrow (x+5, y-3) \rightarrow (11, -16)$

Rambo then translated down a set of stairs and ran straight into General Width! "YOU WONT GET AWAY WITH THIS!" said Rambo The Rhombus as he dived right towards General Wldth, knocking him to the ground. With General Wldth out cold Rambo began looking for Ms. Decagon. "RAMBO! I'M IN HERE!" Rambo found her in a cellar and broke her out and they both ran back to the city.
